

as a retired flight attendant from united airlines (after 30 years), i urge you to continue to support the ban on cell phones inflight. flying already involves enough stress without customers having to listen to every other person on the aircraft talking [LOUDLY] into their phones. can you hear me now? please!